

J. Chris Freeders
Senior Vice President, Finance and Controller

J. Chris Freeders is Senior Vice President, Finance and Controller; a position he has held since 2017. Mr. Freeders' primary responsibilities include external audit and financial reporting, accounting research and financial support of corporate operations. Since joining the company in 2005, Mr. Freeders held various positions in Finance including Vice President, Finance and Assistant Controller, Senior Director of Financial Reporting and Director of Financial Reporting where his primary areas of responsibilities were accounting research and external reporting.

Prior to joining Oshkosh, Mr. Freeders worked for PricewaterhouseCoopers from 1992 to 2005. When he left to join Oshkosh in 2005, he was an audit senior manager coordinating audits of private and public companies. While at PricewaterhouseCoopers, Mr. Freeders spent three years on assignment in Dusseldorf, Germany.

Mr. Freeders holds a Master of Business Administration from UW-Oshkosh and a bachelor's of business administration degree in accounting from UW-Whitewater. He received his certified public accountant certification in 1994.