

Tina R. Schoner
Senior Vice President, Chief Procurement Officer

Tina Schoner is the Senior Vice President, Chief Procurement Officer for Oshkosh Corporation. She has primary responsibility for the development and execution of supply chain strategies for direct materials and indirect goods and services supporting four segments within the specialty truck and access equipment markets. In this role, Ms. Schoner leads supply chain operational excellence in the areas of purchasing, materials management, logistics, commodity management, supplier performance and strategic sourcing.

Schoner joined Oshkosh Corporation in 2017. Prior to her current role, Schoner was the Executive Director, Global Operations Management for United Technologies Corporation where she was responsible for the strategy, development and execution of supply chain supporting four divisions within the commercial building and aerospace-markets including Pratt & Whitney, Otis, Carrier and United Technologies Aerospace Systems.

Additionally, Ms. Schoner provided strategic supply chain leadership for the aerospace and defense industry at Rockwell Collins, Inc. and held supply chain and operations leadership positions of increasing responsibility at Penford Products Company and ConAgra.

Ms. Schoner holds a bachelor's of science degree in Applied Business from Mount Mercy University as well as an Executive MBA from the University of Iowa. Schoner also served active duty in the United States Marine Corps.